

Shining Star | August 2015

Name: Heather L. Aaronson
Firm: Prime Clerk
Title: Senior Consultant

Professional Background

Heather Aaronson is a Senior Consultant at Prime Clerk. She has over fifteen years of restructuring experience. Prior to joining Prime Clerk, Heather worked for the Recovery and Transformation Services practice at McKinsey & Company, Inc., a strategic consulting firm, which was a key advisor on several Chapter 11 restructurings, including American Airlines and Edison Mission Energy, among others. Heather began her restructuring career as the lead paralegal in the restructuring groups of Weil, Gotshal & Manges and Dewey & LeBoeuf, representing debtors, creditors and lenders in complex Chapter 11 cases and in out-of-court restructurings. Some of the other notable restructurings Heather worked on include Enron, General Motors, Loral Space & Communications, Global Crossing, Adelphia, WorldCom, and Ambac.

IWIRC Involvement

Heather joined IWIRC in 2015, and she is currently on the Substantive Events Subcommittee. Heather plans on running for the IWIRC Treasurer position on the Board this Fall.

Personal Life

Heather loves spending her free time gardening, cooking, sailing and reading. Both she and her husband were recently awarded Master Judge certifications for the Kansas City Barbeque Society, and they travel around the East Coast judging professional barbeque competitions. Having lived in Europe and traveled extensively throughout Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas, she hopes to continue to visit two new locations a year with her family.
