

Shining Star | March 2015

Name: Kamila Khairoullina
Firm: FTI Consulting
Title: Director

Professional Background

Kamila Khairoullina has five years of experience in restructuring consulting and investment banking. As a Director in the FTI Consulting Corporate Finance practice, Kamila provides financial and strategic solutions to companies, their creditors and investors. She works with both public and private companies across many industries, including hospitality, equipment rental, financial services, energy, healthcare, manufacturing and retail. She has experience with financial projections, strategic planning, cash flow forecasting, valuations, cash management, business plan assessments, liquidation analyses, process improvement and M&A analyses. Prior to joining FTI, Kamila was with the Technology Investment Banking Group of Stifel Nicolaus Weisel, where she was involved in a number of high profile M&A and capital markets transactions.

IWIRC Involvement

Kamila joined IWIRC NY in 2014. She is an active member of the IWIRC NY Substantive Events Committee and is currently working on planning the upcoming Personal Branding event. Since joining, she also participated in the Pitch Perfect: A Mock Pitch event as a member of one of the pitch teams.

Personal Life

Kamila enjoys trying new restaurants in New York City as well as spending time with friends and family exploring the city.