Currently, we hold three annual programs, as follows: 1) A Law Student Reception, consisting of a networking reception and panel of professionals from large firm practice to alternative careers such as accounting and workers compensation; 2) Bankruptcy Law Institute Luncheon, during an annual bankruptcy law seminar by the Columbus Bar Association in May. The luncheon is open to both members and non-members and has been used as a recruiting tool. Also, at least one speaker is invited to speak on a selected topic. This year's luncheon speaker was The Honorable Steven W. Rhodes, Chief Judge of the US Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of Michigan. The selected topic was, "Balancing Life at Work with Life at Home;" and 3) Christmas Luncheon, open to members only. During this annual event, the members wrap gifts for delivery to at least two adopted families based on family wish lists. The families are chosen from community organizations or our members' church organizations. Our remaining programming for 2007 is as follows: 1) Annual Gathering- Cookout, sponsored by one of our network and International members. To be held August 8, 2007. 2) Wellness Activity- We are inviting a personal trainer to one of our meetings to provide us with exercises/stress relievers that can be performed at our desks. To be held, October, 2007. Open to members only; 3) Christmas Luncheon (please see above). New programming ideas in progress for 2008 are as follows: 1) Spa Activity- Pampering, plus professional makeup lesson. Open to members only. 2) High Tea- This event would be a social/networking event, at a downtown Columbus hotel.
