From the Communications Chair

Carrienne Basler, Managing Director, AlixPartners, LLC

Fellow Members,

One of the things I love about the fall is how everyone gets into a “Back to School” mode after summer vacation. So this newsletter will help you get caught up with IWIRC after the summer! If you are looking for new event ideas check out the Network section of the newsletter. In addition, we have added a new feature, the Sponsor Spotlight, to recognize our sponsors. Also, if you are interested in nominating someone for Woman of the Year we have instructions for you. And last, but not least, if you would like to contribute to the newsletter we’d love to hear from you.

All the best, Carrienne

From the Chair

Judith Elkin, Partner, Haynes & Boone

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

As I write this, I have just returned from beautiful but warm Atlanta, Georgia, where our peach of a Georgia Network did IWIRC proud in hosting our annual Leadership Summit. One cannot help but return from our Leadership Summit without being refreshed and energized.

The Summit was attended by most of IWIRC’s international board members and network chairs or network representatives, as well as several past chairs whose insight and wisdom are always appreciated. Nearly 60 women dined at exclusive venues, got a behind the scenes tour of the Georgia Aquarium, the largest in the world, and met to discuss issues critical to IWIRC’s future. Each year, our Leadership Summit gets bigger and better, and this year was no exception. Immeasurable thanks go to:

McKenna Long & Aldridge (Summer Chandler and Alison Franklin) – for their beautiful conference facilities, Georgia-centric gift bags and old-fashioned Southern hospitality

KCC (Francine Gordon) – for Wednesday night’s sumptuous dinner at BLT Omni Management (Nellwyn Voorhies) – for a traditional Southern breakfast on Thursday morning, including grits, biscuits and gravy

Epiq Systems (Jennifer Meyerowitz) – for hosting guest speaker, Connie Glaser, and providing us with a copy of her informative book, Gender Talk Works

Burr & Forman (Bess Creswell) – for lunch on Thursday and breakfast on Friday

Barron Business Consulting (Bernadette Barron) – with IWIRC – for cohosting the GA Aquarium behind the scenes tour

BMC (Tinamarie Feil) – for co-sponsoring the dinner on Thursday night at Alma

Georgia Network – for co-sponsoring the dinner on Thursday night at Alma, and joining us there to meet, greet and mingle

GCG (Liz Vrato) – for our closing lunch on Friday at Rays in the City

One of the highlights of the retreat was the interactive program presented by Connie Glaser. Connie Glaser is a leading expert on gender communications in the workplace. Her syndicated column appears in newspapers around the country, and she has appeared as a commentator on Bloomberg News, CNN, and NBC Nightly News. She is often retained by major global corporations such as ESPN and Delta Airlines to consult on gender and diversity issues. Ms Glaser started her program by having us answer a series of true or false questions on how men and women behave, or are perceived to behave, during conversations and meetings. Our group of perceptive women was right on the money with its responses – scoring near perfect. A discussion followed on the differences in how men and women communicate, and the speech habits that women develop which serve to sabotage their success in the workplace. We learned to speak our minds more directly and not qualify or soften our opinions. The group then broke into subgroups. Each subgroup discussed certain workplace issues and how to resolve them. A full discussion of these issues was then shared with the whole group. The collective wisdom of the group is being amassed and will be distributed to the Summit attendees.

The best part of the Summit is getting to know the women involved in the leadership of IWIRC. Each of us has so much to offer each other. The incredible knowledge base developed by our many networks can be shared so much more easily when we all get together in person. In the spirit of Connie Glaser, we met, wined, dined, and most importantly, conversed to establish rapport and connection with each other, thereby building new and strengthening old relationships. On that note, I hope to see many of you at our wonderful Fall Conference in San Diego. It will be bigger and better than ever with fascinating educational panels, a reception at the world renowned San Diego Zoo, and many opportunities for fun, networking and relationship building.

All the best, Judy

2012 Woman of the Year in Restructuring – Call for Nominations

DEADLINE: October 29, 2012

IWIRC is looking to once again honor a woman for her recent contributions to and/or lifetime achievements as part of the restructuring industry. She may be an attorney, judge, banker, turnaround manager, academic or other restructuring industry professional. She is actively engaged or recently retired from the restructuring industry - and from anywhere in the world. To make sure we don't miss anyone, we need your help.

IWIRC membership is NOT a requirement to make a nomination, nor to be honored.

Take a few minutes to consider a woman who...

- Inspired and/or skillfully led a restructuring team
- Provided creative solutions and innovative legal applications
- Creates win-win-win outcomes
- Shows exceptional leadership
- Has made an extraordinary contribution
- Went above and beyond ... and made a difference

These achievements do not have to be in nationally renowned cases or even resulting in landmark decisions, they just have to be out of the ordinary. Please feel free to think out of the box on this. We welcome all entries and are not just looking for the most senior woman or the most important case! Please consider those women who have consistently demonstrated a commitment to enhancing the restructuring industry.

Network Happenings

Canada-Montreal Network Officially Open for Business!

Under the initial leadership of Melanie Martel, Davis LLP, IWIRC's 3rd Canadian network was launched on October 15, 2012. Stay tuned for details on upcoming events and check out their webpage when you get a chance.

Hong Kong Network Great Debate 2012

On Thursday, 4 October, IWIRC Hong Kong hosted its Third Annual Great Debate, the contention? "It is better to be morally bankrupt than financially bankrupt". Moderated by David Kidd of David Kidd & Co. for a second year running, the affirmative team, comprising Donna Duke of HSBC, Christine Kim of Jones Day and Andrew Sheppard of Dragon Chambers sought to convince the hundred and six -strong crowd of their position: "That the morally bankrupt have more fun!"

Meanwhile, the negative team comprising Jonathan Hatch of Madison Pacific, Neil McDonald of Hogan Lovells and Justine Lau of Mayer Brown JSM took the moral highroad, prophesying that the morally bankrupt will have their inescapable day of judgment (in the fire and brimstone sense) and the question for the audience was a no-brainer; "Of course it is better to be financially bankrupt than morally bankrupt - we're insolvency practitioners after all and the financially bankrupt keep us employed!"

Despite a rousing and impassioned closing speech by Andrew Sheppard for the affirmative, "Give me moral bankruptcy!" and David Kidd threatening to make up further rules for the debate so as to exercise "As many casting votes as necessary"; by the narrowest of margins, the audience decided that the financially bankrupt team carried the day.

The event was kindly hosted by HSBC at its spectacular floor-to-ceiling glassed Atrium, with canapés and beverages generously co-sponsored by Jones Day and Madison Pacific.

Georgia Network

School is back in session and the big yellow buses are on the interstate once again. IWIRC's Georgia Network is not letting the back to school traffic slow them down! On July 26th the Alabama, Carolinas, Florida, Georgia and Virginia networks hosted a beautiful luncheon at the ABI Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop. The Network members enjoyed the fresh seafood at the SALT restaurant inside the Ritz Carlton Amelia Island while making new friends with sister network members. It was a well attended and enjoyable event for all. In early August, Georgia Network was thrilled to host the IWIRC International Board of Directors and Network Chairs at the 6th Annual IWIRC Leadership Summit in Atlanta, Georgia. Georgia Network members made a great impression with our wonderful guests from across the country and globe.

IWIRC's Georgia Network's tailgate is in full force! On Saturday, August 25th, the IWIRC-Georgia Network had a great volunteer turnout at the Going Strong: Strides for Success Conference, hosted by the Professional Women's Group of Dress for Success Atlanta. Melissa Davey organized the Georgia Network's participation in and sponsorship of this valuable and rewarding community service opportunity. Thanks to volunteers Shatorree Bates, Alison Elko Franklin, Katy Furr, and Brian Shockley for speaking on the financial literacy panel moderated by Melissa. Thanks also to Vania Allen, Suzanne Boyd, Ruth Hughes, Sharon Lewonski, Madeleine Patton and Ruth Hughes for meeting one-on-one with DFS conference attendees to answer general questions regarding credit and finances.

The Georgia Network would like to congratulate Wendy Marx, the winner of our "like" us on facebook contest. Members enjoyed participating in the contest and connecting through social media. Congrats are also in order for Stacia M. Stokes who as of August, is the newest associate of Thomas, Kayden, Horstemeyer & Risley, LLP.

IWIRC's Georgia Network would like to wish you a spooktacular October! Witches, goblins and candy are not the only thing on our members' minds this time of year. On September 18th IWIRC-Georgia Network hosted a Bankruptcy Court Chief Judges' Panel at McKenna Long & Aldridge LLP. The event was a hit and we would like to thank the panel that featured the Chief Judges from the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts of Georgia: the Honorable Susan D. Barrett (SDGA), the Honorable John T. Laney, III (MDGA) and the Honorable C. Ray Mullins (NDGA). On October 9th the members of IWIRC's Georgia Network took an evening off from their own kitchens and attended a Greek Isles cooking class at The Viking Store. The event was well attended and the food was delicious!

We hope that you will be able to join us on November 1, 2012 from 4:30 pm to 7:00 pm as IWIRC-Georgia Network co-hosts a reception celebrating the investiture of The Honorable Barbara Ellis-Monro, the Northern District of Georgia's newest Bankruptcy Judge (and an IWIRC member!), at the State Bar of Georgia. We also look forward to our annual business meeting and the election of our 2013 board of directors, tentatively scheduled for November 27, 2012.

Last, but not least, the Georgia Network would like to congratulate all of the 2012 Rising Star Award semi-finalists, including our own Sage Sigler of Alston & Bird LLP.
