Singapore Network

At IWIRC, we punch above our weight, and roll with the punches. The Singapore Network came together on 28 April 2025 for a full body workout at Box Office Fitness Singapore.

This is part of a series of health and wellness networking events planned for our members in Singapore to better be able to form genuine and lasting bonds over common interests, in smaller groups.

Stay tuned for more health and wellness events from IWIRC Singapore! P.S. For our next event, we are about to raise the barre...

Channel Islands Network

IWIRC Channel Islands Network hosted a Spring Brunch in Jersey on 24 April 2025. IWIRC (CI) Members enjoyed a morning of networking, breakfast and an engaging opening address from Lynda Allo of the Viscount's Department. The event was well attended and is set to be a permanent fixture in the IWIRC CI Network calendar.

Cyprus Network

In celebration of International Women's Day, the Cyprus Network was proud to host an insightful and inspiring discussion with Cleopatra Kitti and Georgios Georgiou on Matters of Life and Debt.

Drawing from their extensive experience, their speakers shared invaluable advice on navigating financial challenges, in the boardroom and at home, including:

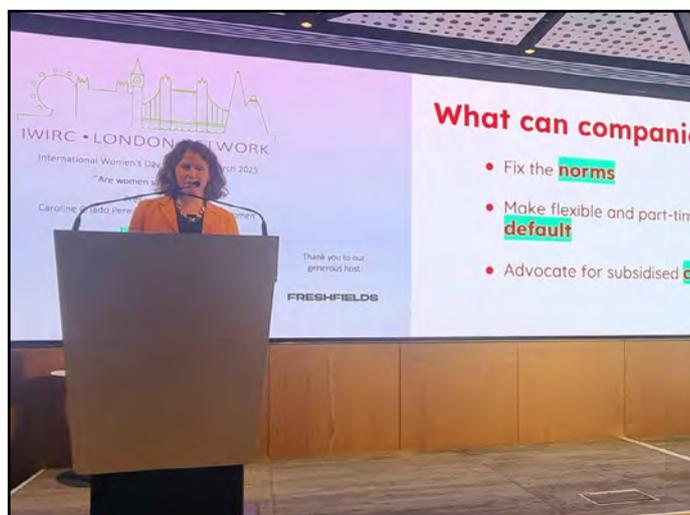

- Breaking the taboo – Money issues at home should be openly discussed.
- Debt with direction– Being strategic and setting a clear horizon for debt management is key.
- Cashflow is king AND queen – Financial stability and liquidity drive success.
- Own your choices – Taking control of your life extends to your financial decisions.

London Network

International Women's Day: Are Women Still Invisible - thoughts from Caroline Criado Perez, author of Invisible Women – 13 March 2025

The IWIRC London network was delighted to host a fantastic evening celebrating International Women's Day, with insightful thoughts from Caroline Criado Perez on gender gaps and equality. It was great to see so many meaningful connections being made.

Finding Your Path: In Conversation with Lady Brenda Hale, former President of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom – 27 March 2025

The IWIRC London network was delighted to host an evening with Lady Brenda Hale where she shared her remarkable journey, breaking barriers and making history. Thank you to our event organisers for an excellent Be Connected event!

Easter Wreath Making – 3 April 2025

It was great to host an Easter wreath-making event - we had a lovely evening, testing our inner florists and putting our creative skills into practice! A special thank you to 4 Stone Buildings for generously providing the catering and venue, and for helping make the evening such a success.

Scotland Network

February Fizz

IWIRC Scotland's well known and well attended February Fizz was another big success this year! With new faces as well as existing members, new connections were formed and others strengthened – and the surprise salsa dancers were certainly entertaining!

IWD event

IWIRC Scotland once again welcomed Kirsty McWilliam from ThinkEQ for a lunchtime session on the theme of Accelerate Action, focussing on the themes Re-set, Re-focus and Rise. Kirsty posed some very thought provoking questions, which allowed us to look inwards to how we can accelerate action for ourselves.

New Crew Lagree Pilates

Focussing on wellbeing, our IWIRC Scotland New Crew hosted a fun, high-intensity, low-impact workout on a Miniformer, which was a sellout and put the attendees through their paces! A bite to eat and a drink afterwards was certainly well-earned!

Dallas/Fort Worth Network

The Dallas/Fort Worth Network held a Girl Scout Cookie & Wine Pairing Night on February 19, 2025.

IWIRC DFW hosted its annual Bestest Party Ever! on March 26, 2025. This year's theme was all things green. Members snacked on green matcha cupcakes, pickled vegetables, lucky charms krispy treats and sipped on signature green cocktails.

IWIRC DFW hosted a Leather & Libations event on April 30, 2025, where IWIRC DFW members were able to shop at a popup hosted by "Jon B Leather" for custom crafted leather goods while partaking in some light bites and champagne.

Greater Philadelphia Network

As part of its initiative to increase membership, promote interest in the insolvency profession, and improve overall diversity in our field, the IWIRC - Greater Philadelphia Network hosted events at two local law schools: Rutgers Law in Camden, NJ; and Temple Law in Philadelphia. The events were organized in concert with student organizations such as the Women's Law Caucus, the OUTLaws (Rutgers's Camden LGBTQ law student association), and Temple Law's Tax and Bankruptcy Law Society, as well as each school's Career Services Department. The panels featured board members and recently-graduated IWIRC members who gave an introduction to restructuring and bankruptcy procedure, discussed future opportunities in our profession, and—of course—sang the many praises of IWIRC membership!

On March 13, 2025, the IWIRC Greater Philadelphia Network hosted its annual Afternoon Tea event at The Dandelion. Just steps away from Rittenhouse Square, this British-inspired pub provides an intimate space for members and friends to gather for high tea. Featuring a traditional service of tea, cocktails, and sweet and savory menu items, this afternoon event is a network favorite. This year, the IWIRC-Philly Board upped the ante by encouraging attendees to wear fascinators and gave out prize ribbons—hand painted by the network's co-chair, Lauren Berret—and a bottle of wine for the winning hats in five separate categories.

Houston Network

In January 2025, the Houston Network members kicked things off with an inspiring fireside chat in partnership with Turnaround Management Association's Network of Women (NOW). The members had the privilege of hearing from retired Bankruptcy Judge Shelley C. Chapman about her illustrious career and her current practice involving mediations and complex bankruptcy issues.

In February 2025, the Houston Network came together for a fun and festive social hour to celebrate "Galentine's Day."

In honor of International Women's Day, the Houston Network also sipped, shopped, and celebrated women at Nordstrom, fostering relationships and supporting each other's growth and success. They enjoyed catching up in-person and networking with fellow members and prospective members.

Minnesota Network

On March 20, the IWIRC Minnesota Network hosted a creative candle-making event. Attendees selected vessels to pour their own 100% soy wax candles and chose personalized scents for their creations. While waiting for their candles to set, participants decorated candles with dried flowers and acrylic paint.

The event, held at local craft workshop Simply Creative, was a great opportunity to connect and network while engaging in a fun, creative activity. The relaxed atmosphere provided an ideal setting for meaningful conversations and relationship building among colleagues. Attendees left not only with beautiful handcrafted candles but also with strengthened professional connections.

The Minnesota Network extends its sincere thanks to its 2025 sponsors: ASK LLP, Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones, Fredrikson & Byron P.A., Lathrop GPM, and Maslon LLP.

New Jersey Network

In late March, IWIRC-NJ and NJTMA Now co-hosted a “Make Your Own Charcuterie Board” event in Roseland, NJ. Attendees met for dinner, drinks, and networking while Jenny Weinstock of Just Jenny’s Boards worked her magic at McManimon, Scotland & Baumann, LLC—turning their conference room into a beautiful and delicious workspace. Jenny and her daughter, Meredith (current law student and likely future IWIRC member!), demonstrated cutting and arranging techniques and explained how to incorporate colors, textures, and flavors to create a board that is both mouthwatering and visually stunning. Each guest put their newly learned skills to the test and went home with a beautiful, custom-made charcuterie board.

Ontario Network

In March, IWIRC Ontario held its Annual General Meeting, where the current board was introduced and the network welcomed its first male members. During the event, exciting plans for 2025 were discussed.

The Network also hosted an event titled, "Inspiring Change: A Celebration of Women in Insolvency and Restructuring" in May.

Western Canada Network

In celebration of International Women's Day, IWIRC Western Canada hosted its second annual "Spin for Your Sisters" event, co-ordinating spin classes in Vancouver and Calgary on March 7, 2025, in support of the Canadian Women's Foundation. Turnout was fantastic in both cities, and participants left happy and energized from a vigorous and fun workout! Additionally, the Network raised $6,300.00 in support of the Canadian Women's Foundation.

IWIRC Western Canada hosted its fourth annual ski day on April 4, 2025 at the beautiful Lake Louise Ski Resort in Alberta. Participants hit the slopes skiing, sightseeing or tubing, networked over lunch and relaxed with apres-ski activities!
