SPONSORSHIP SPOTLIGHT

Alison Elko Franklin and Allison J. McGregor are proud IWIRC members and attorneys in the global law firm Greenberg Traurig, LLP's Restructuring & Special Situations Practice.

Alison Franklin is a long-time leader of IWIRC at both the regional and global levels. She was Co-Chair of the Georgia Network when it received the Ryan Award for Outstanding IWIRC Network. She currently serves as Vice Director of Programs on the International Board.

Allison McGregor is a Board Member and Secretary of the Georgia Network, as well as an active participant in International Committees.

At Greenberg Traurig, Franklin and McGregor focus their practice on bankruptcy, creditors' rights, and commercial litigation. They advise debtors, secured lenders, indenture trustees, creditors' committees, and other parties in commercial bankruptcies and out of court restructurings.

Greenberg Traurig's globally recognized Restructuring & Special Situations Practice is noted for its ability to provide innovative thinking and practical strategies to define objectives, resolve complicated situations, and take advantage of opportunities in distress situations. With a diverse range of experience, the practice offers critical advice in insolvency situations and utilizes a business network to offer counsel to multiple constituencies.

Greenberg Traurig has more than 3000 attorneys in 51 locations in the United States, Europe and the Middle East, Latin America, and Asia. The firm's broad geographic and practice range enables the delivery of innovative and strategic legal services across borders and industries. The firm is a 2024 BTI "Leading Edge Law Firm" for delivering on client expectations for the future and is consistently among the top firms on the Am Law Global 100 and NLJ 500. Greenberg Traurig is also known for its philanthropic giving, culture, innovation, and pro bono work.

Greenberg Traurig's Atlanta office offers clients the local capabilities and wide-ranging experience of more than 115 attorneys, supported by the resources and reach of the firm's global platform. The firm's collaborative culture is reflected by attorneys who serve their clients with a combination of legal and business skills that are vital in today's competitive, global environment. Greenberg Traurig's Atlanta team brings a practical approach to the representation of our clients.
