

RETURN TO IN PERSON

Returning to In Person Hearings in the Bankruptcy Court

Northern District of Georgia's Atlanta, Newnan and Rome Divisions

PUBLIC NOTICE HERE

Beginning in late September, calendar calls and hearings on matters on the calendar in the Atlanta, Newnan, and Rome divisions that are not settled or reset will be held in person unless the court orders otherwise.

Calendar calls and hearings will no longer be viewable virtually as a matter of course.

Settled matters, no opposition matters, and reset requests ("Requested Announcements") must be reported to the appropriate Courtroom Deputy by 4:00 p.m. the day prior to a morning calendar or 10:00 a.m. the day of an afternoon calendar to avoid counsels' and pro se parties' obligation to appear in person.

Matters that are not resolved by a Requested Announcement or an in-person announcement at the call of the calendar will be heard immediately after the second calendar call.

Matters in Chapter 13 cases will not be delayed for negotiation or discussion with the Chapter 13 Trustee. The Court supports and will enforce the deadlines established by the Chapter 13 Trustees for reporting and resolving issues prior to the call of the mass calendar.

The Court will also amend its voluntary notice procedures to include motions for relief from stay in Chapter 7 cases. This change will occur prior to September.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
Northern District of Georgia

Honorable Barbara Ellis-Monro, Chief Judge • Vania S. Allen, Clerk of Court

SPONSORSHIP SPOTLIGHT

GlassRatner Advisory & Capital Group has reemerged as an independent brand following its acquisition by TorQuest Partners from B. Riley Financial.

With a 24-year legacy in financial advisory services, GlassRatner is poised for a new chapter of innovation and expansion.

CEO Ian Ratner shared, "Our brand and culture remain vibrant. With a strong team and solid foundation, we're ready for continued growth." The firm now operates across the U.S., Canada, and Mexico, offering services in restructuring, forensic accounting, engineering consulting, and more.

GlassRatner's Canadian operations, formerly B. Riley Farber, will now unify under the GlassRatner name. The firm continues to attract top talent and has earned accolades from industry leaders for its work in turnaround management, litigation consulting, and expert witness services.
