Chapter 13 Trustee Lunch Learn

Greatest Hits: Objections to Confirmation (And How to Avoid Them)

Join the Office of Melissa J. Davey for our quarterly Chapter 13 Trustee Lunch and Learn on Friday, March 13, 2026, from 12:30–1:30 PM.

This session will take a “greatest hits” approach to the most common objections to confirmation, with practical guidance on how to avoid them before they arise. Topics will include objections related to:

- Feasibility
- Plan Administration
- Good Faith

This program includes participation and attendance by all three Chapter 13 Trustee Offices of the Northern District of Georgia, offering a unique opportunity to hear perspectives across offices.

Participants are welcome to bring their lunch, or visit the restaurants in the Peachtree Center Hub (located beneath our building) prior to the lunch hour.

RSVP Required:

Please RSVP to mail@13trusteeatlanta.com and additional parking details will be provided.

Please note: The Trustee is unable to validate parking. There are surface lots and parking garages along Peachtree Center Avenue close to the office.

UPCOMING EVENTS

WE CARE Veterans Fair

Volunteers will have the opportunity to engage with attendees regarding financial concerns, share general knowledge, and help connect veterans with available resources. There is no expectation that volunteers take on clients; participation is limited to listening and providing guidance. That said, attorneys are welcome to bring business cards, as the event may also serve as a source of referrals.

Volunteer Training

To support volunteers, training materials—including a brief video—will be provided, covering how to speak with veterans and share military-specific financial information.

Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta, GA

SPONSORSHIP SPOTLIGHT

STEINFELD &
STEINFELD, P. C.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Based in Buckhead, the experienced Atlanta lawyers of Steinfeld & Steinfeld, P.C., provide dynamic, strategic representation in family law and bankruptcy matters. Bruce Steinfeld (Family Law / Divorce Attorney, and the current president of the Georgia Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers) and Shayna Steinfeld (Bankruptcy Attorney; Board Certified, by the American Board of Certification in both Business Bankruptcy Law and Consumer Bankruptcy Law, handling creditor and debtor matters in chapters 7, 11 and 13) have been acknowledged as leaders in their respective practice areas, creating positive solutions to challenging legal problems.

On January 1, 2000, Bruce and Shayna Steinfeld formed Steinfeld & Steinfeld, P.C. As husband and wife, Bruce and Shayna are partners in all aspects of their lives. They founded the firm with the mission of providing the highest levels of client service and legal representation in family and bankruptcy law. The firm's business model enables clients to receive the level of representation associated with larger legal service providers without incurring the costs associated with these firms. When you work with Bruce on a family matter or with Shayna on a bankruptcy matter, you will receive the full time and attention of your attorney. There is no delegation at Steinfeld & Steinfeld, P.C. You will work closely and directly with Shayna or Bruce from the initial stages of your case until its conclusion. Both Bruce and Shayna answer their phones and return their emails personally. Consequently, each member of the firm is always fully engaged and able to discuss every aspect of your case in great detail.

While personal service is a critical component of the firm's representation, Shayna and Bruce recognize the caliber of your legal counsel is of equal or greater importance. To this end, both of the firm's lawyers are known across Atlanta and Georgia for their skill in effectively resolving complex bankruptcy and family matters. Their many honors and leadership positions stand as a testament to the esteem with which Atlanta's legal community holds them. Of course, these honors are not nearly as crucial as the accolades Bruce and Shayna have received from satisfied clients.
