Intermezzo 1 - Chocolate Tasting Class	4/19/2018 14:00	4/19/2018 16:30	This 90-minute class will introduce you to the rich history of chocolate, the cultivation of theobroma cacao, the process behind manufacturing artisan and fine chocolate. After learning about the background of chocolate you will explore numerous flavor profiles through smelling & tasting exercises that will give you a fresh understanding of flavor & aroma in fine food. Finally, test your new-found chocolate knowledge on 8 artisan chocolates from around the world. Includes dark, milk & white chocolate samples. Meet in the hotel lobby at 2:00 p.m. to Uber/taxi to The Chocolate House, 1904 18th St NW, Washington, DC 20009. Cost: $45 per person, limit 15 participants. Allergy Alert: Although nuts will not be used during the class, nuts are used in the facility and there is a risk of cross-contamination.
Intermezzo 2 - Kayaking on the Potomac	4/19/2018 14:00	4/19/2018 16:30	Grab your sunscreen and your sense of adventure for an afternoon on the Potomac! We will group Uber/Lyft from the hotel at 2:00 to the Key Bridge Boathouse in Georgetown and, after a brief kayaking and safety instruction, our 90-minute guided tour begins with a paddle around Theodore Roosevelt Island and other famous D.C. locations like Watergate, the Lincoln Memorial, and Kennedy Center as our guide comments on unique facts of the area that just may surprise you! No prior kayaking experience necessary. This intermezzo ends at 4:00 p.m. and we will group Uber/Lyft back to the hotel. Cost: $75 per person; maximum 20 participants

Intermezzo 3 - National Portrait Gallery	4/19/2018 14:30	4/19/2018 16:30	Meet in the lobby of the hotel to cab share/Uber to the National Portrait Gallery, located at 8th and G Streets NW. The National Portrait Gallery contains over 15,000 works, from portraits of scientists and statesmen to film stars, in anything from rare nineteenth-century daguerreotypes to year-old digital video. Enjoy a docent led tour titled "Remember the Ladies (Portraits of or by Women)." The tour starts at 3:00 p.m. Please meet your guide at the Information Desk inside the group entrance at G and 8th Streets. At the completion of your tour, you are free to continue to browse the museum (it's open until 7:00 p.m.) or stop by Zaytinya's across the street for cocktails with colleagues! The tour is FREE; limit 30 participants.
